UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE AND CHRISTMAS SPIRIT IN OLD RAUMA

Guided daytrip to Rauma available on request 26th November - 17th December

SAMK EduTravel welcomes You to experience the Finnish lifestyle and culture by joining our fun daytrips in the beautiful Satakunta region, West coast of Finland!

We welcome You to join us in a guided tour to Rauma, where we sense the history and present of the Old Rauma wooden house area which is one of the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Finland, sense the Christmas Spirit with Christmas lights and enjoy delicious lunch in charming Villa Tallbo restaurant by the seashore. All our services are provided in English, and a Tour Leader from us will be with you for the whole trip. Take your friends and come join the fun!

Rauma Old town has remained as the largest, unified and well-preserved medieval wooden city centre of the Nordic countries. It's still the heart of the city where people live, trade, work and hobby all year round in a historic setting.

This daytrip is available on request from 26th November to 17th December.

You can book it through e-mail: edutransel@samk.fi

The group size is 20-30 persons.

Experience and Education - EduTravels with joy!
