Relaxing Forest & Summer Cottage Feeling

Guided daytrip to Parkano Forest Museum & SyVilla Cottage available on request in May and September

SAMK EduTravel warmly welcomes you to a once-in-a-lifetime trip to the Lauhanvuori-Hämeen kangas UNESCO Global Geopark, in small town of Parkano, Western Finland.

On this guided daytrip you will familiarize with forestry history, experience a relaxing forest trail and summer cottage lifestyle in Finland. Best way to learn the Finnish culture is by being part of it!

The day will start with interesting stories and facts about the history of the local Forest Museum and geology of Unesco Global Geopark Lauhanvuori-Hämeen kangas, followed by memorable wellbeing exercises at the magical views in the forest. After a fun time in the Forest Museum area, we will arrive at SyVilla cottage by the shore of a lake Kovesjärvi, where you can try a Finnish outdoor game Mölkky, row boating, canoeing and SUP-boarding and enjoy a relaxing sauna, swimming and hot-tub experience among your new international friends!

This daytrip is available on request in May and September.
You can book it through e-mail: edutransel@samk.fi
The group size is 15-18 persons, to create togetherness.
